IYS Competition - Revised Deadlines

Dear National Representatives,
We hope this finds you well.

As you know, the International Year of Sound has been extended to 2021 and the deadlines for participating in the Students Competition have been postponed as well. In the light of the second wave of the Covid-19 pandemic, together with the ICA, we believe that a second extension of the Students Competition is necessary.

Please find below the new Revised Deadlines:

- Participants must send items to the IYS2020 National Representative by 30 April 2021
- Each IYS2020 National Representative selects their three finalists, awarded as National winners, and send their items to the ICA IYS2020 Steering Committee (Competition Coordinator Office) by 31 May 2021
- Evaluation from Expert Jury and Web Jury takes place from 1 June 2021 to 15 July 2021
- Winners and awarded items are announced by 15 September 2021

The competition and submission details have been updated at the following link:
<https://sound2020.org/society/student-competition/>

As National Representatives, we kindly ask you to inform all the interested people, collect the contributions from the schools of your country, and send them to us for allowing them to be considered in the final ballot. Please remember that entries can be submitted by individual students, groups of students, or classes by 30 April 2021.

Due to the pandemic, we have observed a reduction in the participation of students, compared with other past initiatives. Therefore, we suggest you do a punctual action contacting schools and teachers directly to confirm their adhesions. Your contribution is fundamental for the success of the International Year of Sound and all its initiatives. We would like to express many thanks to the countries which have already sent their works. Don't hesitate to contact our office at competition@sound2020.org for any clarification.

Thank you in advance for your comprehension and help.

We wish you a Merry Christmas and a safe 2021.
